END OF FIRST DAY GIVES TAFT APPARENT LEAD

Roosevelt Forces Declare They Will Win Advantage Today.

(Early Morning Cable Report.)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 19.—The first day of the 1912 Republican convention in this city has slipped into history. Nothing positive was determined upon by the thousand delegates assembled from all over the nation, but the end of the day found President Taft's position stronger than ever, and the prospect of a bolt of the Roosevelt forces fading rapidly, or at least growing more remote.

Senator Dixon, campaign manager for Mr. Roosevelt, appeared utterly unconcerned at the election of Senator Root, William Barnes Jr., the boss of the New York delegation, takes the other side. He declares that Mr. Taft will have a clean majority of five hundred and sixty votes, and his figures were sustained to some extent by the vote on the chairmanship fight. Both Barnes and Congressman McKinley, Taft's manager, asserted last night that the President has shown how thoroughly he controls the political situation.

It was fifty-five minutes past 2 o'clock when the result of the voting was known, the convention then adjourning for the day. After the adjournment the leaders of both sides declared themselves to be satisfied with the outcome of the first day's fighting.

The real fighting will not begin until today, when the convention will meet at 11 o'clock. Then the still undecided question of the Roosevelt substitute roll will come up for final decision.

One promise of real trouble for today lies in the fact that Boss Flynn of Pittsburgh compelled the repetition of the call of the Pennsylvania roll on the ground that when one of the alternates was called as having voted for Root a mistake had been made, and that the man had really voted for McGovern. His protests were overruled, however.

It was noted that with a very few exceptions all of the Southern negroes cast their votes for President Taft.

Word was passed to the Roosevelt followers late last night to follow the moves of Governor Hadley, floor manager for Roosevelt.

Taft Men Jubilant.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 19.—It was a jubilant crowd of political leaders who gathered at the Taft headquarters after the adjournment of the convention yesterday. Senator Root, who worked strenuously both before and after his election, received the congratulations of his friends.

Following a long consultation, statements were issued by both Congressman McKinley and William Barnes Jr., the leader of the New York delegation. Mr. McKinley said that the President had demonstrated in the first vote how absolutely in control of the situation he was. Mr. Roosevelt, continued the President's campaign manager, had admitted his own lack of strength by declining to select and put in nomination a candidate for the temporary chairmanship. Instead, his managers have attempted to effect a coalition with the followers of La Follette, and the combination has been repudiated by the latter.

Roosevelt Not Cast Down.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 19.—"I am a better warrior than I am a prophet," said Theodore Roosevelt yesterday, when seen at his room in his hotel immediately after the vote for the temporary chairmanship of the convention had been announced and it was known that the President had won the first hard round. Mr. Roosevelt appeared in no wise cast down, however.

During the five hours of the roll call, when his lieutenants were bitterly contesting every point on the floor of the convention, Mr. Roosevelt kept in intimate touch with all that was going on, directing practically every move from his room, over a direct telephone wire with the Coliseum.

Following dinner, a crowd descended upon the Roosevelt headquarters and by 2 o'clock the corridors and the lobbies of the hotel were jammed with a solid mass of struggling humanity, cheering for "Teddy." The crowd was so dense that accidents were feared and the police reserves were called upon to clear the hotel.

The Wisconsin Split.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 19.—The action of the Wisconsin delegation in splitting over the fight on McGovern is regarded as ominous by some of the Roosevelt leaders, who fear that it will react upon their champion's cause. Some of the Wisconsin men are said to have been considerably aroused by Senator La Follette's insistence upon inactivity during the formation of the temporary organization. Half of the State's vote went to McGovern and the other half scattered. McGovern himself did not vote.

The trouble reached a crisis when Eddie Cochems of Wisconsin nominated McGovern, thereby clashing with Walter S. Houser, Senator La Follette's floor manager. La Follette himself and others of the Wisconsin delegation Under the criticism he received he resigned late last night.

In defending his action on the floor of the convention Mr. Cochems said that he had been justified. He accused La Follette of a "selfish and perversely narrow policy."

Dixon "Not Worrying."

CHICAGO, Ill., June 19.—Unmoved apparently by the election of Senator Root as temporary chairman of the national convention, Senator Dixon, ex-President Roosevelt's campaign manager, said last night: "I'm not worrying. We have 'em licked to a finish."

He declared that the "story of the next few days will be a totally different one," and in analyzing the vote said that 22 delegates that voted for Senator Root have been instructed for Roosevelt and would cast their votes for him when the time came. This he added would "leave President Taft short four votes of a majority."

Renton on Resolutions Committee.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 19.—George F. Renton, delegate from Hawaii, has been chosen as one of the members of the committee on resolutions.

$10,000 From Hawaii.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 19.—A gift of ten thousand dollars from the Republicans of Hawaii was announced last night at the meeting of the League of Republican Clubs.

In the election for officers of the club, John Hays Hammond was chosen as president.

Taft Sees Ball Game.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—President Taft yesterday, after a day of hard work at the White House, spent the afternoon at the ball park, where he saw the Washington team win its "seventeenth consecutive game."

ITALY TO SUBMIT TERMS.

LONDON, Eng., June 19.—A dispatch received here from Rome last night brought the first indications of a desire for peace on the part of Italy in her war with Turkey. According to them, Italy has agreed to submit terms of peace to a conference of the powers and is willing to put an end to the war that has cost her considerable money if unusually little in money and which has brought her little in return. No word from the Porte has come to indicate the attitude of Turkey.
